

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

THE RECORDS SILENCED THEM.

Mr. Thaxter, through his organ, no longer calls the APPEAL editor a malicious liar etc., in connection with the APPEAL's statements regarding the case of the State vs. Thaxter, charged with selling liquor without a license.

Of course the case was never pushed to a conclusion, Mr. Thaxter being a prominent member of the Republican combine and a law unto himself. It was quietly slid from the calendar.

The only reply the News can make is that last Summer the editor of the APPEAL put the county to the expense of proceedings against a man named Lachman and then dropped all proceedings.

The facts of the case are that the writer swore out a complaint against the defendant for petty larceny.

He sold chickens and eggs for the Holstein ranch. Part of the money he returned and part he got drunk on.

Larceny would have been very difficult to prove. As long as he kept sober he accounted for the money received, but when he got drunk he didn't.

The writer told Mr. Summerfield to hold the warrant until the affair could be investigated. After investigating the matter, we concluded that the man's peculiar business methods arose more from whiskey than dishonesty and asked the District Attorney to stop all proceedings.

No cost bill was ever presented, nor was there the slightest intimation of any expense incurred by the county. If Mr. Summerfield will make out the cost bill and present it, it will be paid.

Now if the News is really anxious to find an instance of where the county was badly stuck, we refer it to the Hatch case.

Dean Hatch was reported by the Grand Jury as short in his accounts with Ormsby county $600. Thaxter and Bicknell were his bondsmen.

No steps were even taken to collect the bonds and not a cent has ever been paid. The taxpayers had to stand the loss.

Of course it would never do to sue Messrs. Thaxter and Bicknell for Mr. Hatch's shortage. There has always been one law for the common herd in this county and another for the shining lights of the old Republican ring which, thanks to the APPEAL's battering, has gone to the wall and will soon be nothing more than an unpleasant memory in the nostrils of the taxpayers.

Meanwhile if Harry Thaxter concludes he wants to do the fair thing by the county, he had better step up to the Justice Court and settle the costs in the suit wherein he was the defendant.

AGAINST CHANCE VERDICTS.

The Supreme Court of California has decided that chance verdicts are improper and illegal. In the case of Katie E. Dixon against W. S. F. Plans in which damages were claimed for personal injuries the jury agreed by a vote that the average opinion of the jurors should determine the verdict. A ballot was taken, each juror stating the amount of damages that should in his opinion be awarded plaintiff, and returned a verdict for the average. The defendant set forth these facts in an affidavit made by one of the jurors and moved for a new trial on the ground of misconduct on the part of the jury and appealed to the Supreme Court. The Court held that a jury should not agree to abide by a chance verdict, and defined "chance" as a hazard, risk or the result of uncertain and unknown conditions or forces, and the facts developed in the case at bar convinced the Court that the jurors had left their verdict to chance. The defendant's motion for a new trial was the afore granted and the case is to be tried again by a jury that will find a verdict based on facts not on chance.
